

“This Is Who I Am”

To to live your calling as a Kingdom Citizen, you must know and declare God’s word about yourself. You are who God says you are, not what the defeated Satan says about you. Declare out loud who God says you are.

I am strong. - God gives power and strength to His people (Psalm 68:35).

I am victorious. - Every child of God overcomes the world and achieves victory through faith (1 John 5:4-5).

I am valued. - God bought me with a very high price (1 Corinthians 6:20).

I am unique. - God made every part of me, in all my intricate detail, and knit me together in my mother’s womb (Psalm 139:13).

I am God’s workmanship. - God has made me a masterpiece and prepared good works for me to do (Ephesians 2:10).

I am loved. - God loves His people and draws them close to Him with an everlasting, unfailing love (Jeremiah 31:3).

I am important. - I am chosen, a royal priest and member of a holy nation, God's very own possession. I show to others the Goodness of God because He has called me out of darkness and into His marvelous light (1 Peter 2:9).

I am forgiven. - He has removed my sins as far as the east is from the west. I am clean and forgiven (Psalm 103:12).

I am a new creation. - Anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone and a new life has begun (2 Corinthians 5:17).

I am protected. God will not let me stumble. He who watches over me will not slumber (Psalm 121:3).

I am empowered. - I can and I do all things through Christ who strengthens me (Philippians 4:13).

I am chosen. - Jesus chose me and appointed me to go and to produce lasting fruit, so that the Father will give me whatever I ask for using His name (John 15:16).

I am family. - I am not a stranger or foreigner to God's kingdom but I am a citizen along with all of His Holy people. I am a member of His family (Ephesians 2:19).
